DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 33, 36-51, and 55-57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Levine in view of Hribar. Please refer to paragraph 2 of the office action dated May 28, 2007.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 11/29/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. While the chambers of Hribar may not be separate in the spirit of Applicant's invention, however, as broadly read, they do meet the claimed language. Applicant has not claimed separately sealed chambers. In light of the lack of such a limitation, the element 7, although intended to prevent pillowing, nonetheless creates separate chambers. Therefore, the rejection as presented still reads on the claims as presented when the claims are examined in the broadest reasonable light. In response to applicant's arguments against the references individually, one cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually where the rejections are based on combinations of references. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981); In re Merck & Co., 800 F.2d 1091, 231 USPQ 375 (Fed. Cir. 1986).

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
